

A portrait of Natasha Panas, a woman with dark curly hair, wearing a red and black ruffled top, looking directly at the camera.

NATASHA PANAS

LONDON'S
MOST VERSATILE
SINGER-PIANIST

TESTIMONIALS

"With an incredible ability to switch from Gershwin to David Bowie... she will inject any private party with sophistication. Natasha Panas is worth singing about."

Elle Magazine

"Natasha is fantastic. Reliable and friendly – our guests always ask for her to play at birthdays, book launches and all types of events. Her style is lively without being too intrusive and she plays to suit the mood of the event."

Thamsin Andrews, Private Events Manager at The Groucho Club

"I cannot tell you how many wonderful things were said about your performance. Your playing and singing through dinner was fantastic and when your band came on everyone was really blown away. You truly helped make the evening a memorable one."

Eleanor Richardson, Director, The Angels Communications Ltd

"Thanks so much for performing at our event, you played such fab tunes, all of which were greatly appreciated. I shall be passing on your details to clients and friends."

Sarah La Brooy, Givenchy Perfums Ltd

"The event was a great success and everything went really well."

Contraband Events

"Natasha was lovely and it was a great night, please send on my thanks."

Laura Wignall, birthday girl